The State University of New York

Math Dance Workshop for Educators

Sponsored by SUNY Buffalo State School of Arts and Humanities, School of Education, Theater Department, and the New York State Dance Education Association

Thursday, September 19, 2013, 4:00 – 7:00 pm
115 Bacon Hall, SUNY Buffalo State, Buffalo, NY

As Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Designated Teaching Artists and authors of a successful book on the subject of math and dance integration, Karl and Erik of the Dr. Schaffer and Mr. Stern Dance Ensemble will lead a participatory, accessible workshop that shows teachers how to integrate mathematics and dance into their classrooms and studios. Take advantage of this rare opportunity to learn from professional dancers/choreographers who draw from their backgrounds in math and science. The workshop is free but limited to classroom teachers attending the Dr. Schaffer and Mr. Stern Dance Ensemble's "Secret Life of Squares" – a U.B. on School Time Performance. Information on how to register for the performance is below.

Register early because space is limited!

Professional teaching credit certificates will be made available to participants.

If you would like more information on the workshop, please contact guarinja@buffalostate.edu.
